

TOSCA: Women and maps programme

25 March 2021

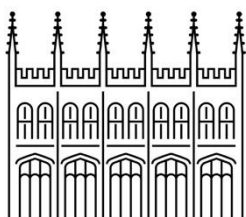

BODLEIAN
LIBRARIES

Time	Session & timing	Speaker	Session title
13:00-13:10	Welcome & Introduction	Catriona Cannon Deputy Librarian, Bodleian Libraries
Session 1 Chair: Nick Millea
13:10-13:30 9:10 EDT	Talk 1 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Camille Serchuk Southern Connecticut State University, USA	Where are the women on sixteenth-century French World maps?
13:30-13:50 9:30 EDT	Talk 2 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Chet Van Duzer University of Rochester, NY, USA	The rise, persistence, and surprising end of female personifications of the continents on maps
13:50-14:10 14:50 CET	Talk 3 15mins Q&A 5 mins	Anne-Rieke van Schaik University of Amsterdam	Women and children first: gender, flood and victimhood in Dutch eighteenth-century maps of dike-breaks
14:10-14:30	Coffee break
Session 2 Chair: Nick Millea
14:30-14:50	Talk 4 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Elizabeth Baigent University of Oxford	'Octavia always enjoyed a map': Octavia Hill, maps, and Victorian social reform
14:50-15:10 10:50 EDT	Talk 5 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Suzie Birdsell NelsonNygaard Consulting, Boston, USA	Mapping toward equitable solutions in public transit planning
15:10-15:30 12:10 BRT	Talk 6 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Manuela Silveira State University of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil	From body as territory to feminicides mapping: discourses and mapping languages by Latin American feminist cartographies
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
Session 3A Chair: Elizabeth Baigent
16:00-16:20	Talk 7 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Mike Heffernan / Benjamin Thorpe University of Nottingham	The political cartographies of Marthe Rajchman
16:20-16:40 9:20 PDT	Talk 8 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Marianne Kinkel Washington State University, USA	Malvina Hoffman and racial cartography during the 1940s
16:40-17:00	Break
Session 3B Chair: Elizabeth Baigent
17:00-17:10	Show & Tell 10 mins	Debbie Hall Bodleian Libraries, University of Oxford	Where are all the women? The case of the Halls

17:10-17:30 13:10 EDT	Talk 9 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Jack Swab University of Kentucky, USA	Beyond 'clerical cartography': gender and the production of Sanborn fire insurance maps in the 1920s
17:30-17:50 12:30 CDT	Talk 10 15 mins Q&A 5 mins	Georgia Brown UW-Milwaukee Libraries, WI, USA	Lost and found in the map library: changes in early map librarianship
17:50-18:00	Concluding remarks

The Oxford Seminars in Cartography are supported by:

The Friends of TOSCA / The Bodleian Libraries / The School of Geography and the Environment /
The Charles Close Society / Lovell Johns Ltd

BODLEIAN
LIBRARIES