

ANSWERS

1. Find examples of texts, maps or other items that provide evidence of people working together in these areas:
 - a) Navigation Oxford County map / Any map, atlas or naval chart on display.
 - b) The Military Plan of fortifications for Oxford / Other appropriate example.
 - c) Literature 'Test of the pen' verse / Encyclopaedia of Domenico Bandini / Chronicle of Adam Usk / Mirroure of the Worlde / Reynard the fox examples / Other appropriate example.
 - d) Religion Gospel lectionary of Cardinal Wolsey / Queen Mary's Psalter / 'Saint Walleperdus' examples / other appropriate example.
 - e) Printing Caxton's Recuyell of the Historyes of Troy / Boke of Astronomy and off Philosophye / 'Coverdale Bible' / Other appropriate example.

2. What differences are there in this image from the real London as it was at the time?

Difference 1: Theatres were circular not octagonal

Difference 2: Ships were copied from an earlier image of Armada (i.e. not trading vessels). Difference 3:

The steeple of the Dutch Church is shown but it had collapsed.

3. The demand for their products and expertise led to many Dutch people settling in Britain. Find an example of a text that catered for this Anglo-Dutch population. How might it have helped them?

Title: e.g. John Day's (Jan Daye's) Catechism / Anthony de Solempne's Historical Calendar / Other example

How it helped: Appropriate explanation of how the example helped the Anglo-Dutch population.

4. Find three features in the image that indicate Reynard's human nature.

- a) Standing on two feet/standing upright.
- b) Wearing clothes / Specific examples of clothes / Holding pennant / Wearing heraldic emblem.
- c) Speaking/Making a speech to the crowd.

5. Which of these animals can you spot in the image?

✓ Birds

✓ Tibert, prince of cats

6. Think of another 'trickster' animal or character associated with a cultural tradition. How do they behave? What special knowledge or abilities do they have?

There are many possible answers, e.g. Anansi, Br'er Rabbit, Cheshire Cat, Coyote, Loki, Monkey King, etc.